

Chuckwagon Races Thrill Crowd At Lions Jamboree

Didsbury Lions Club pulled off another of their annual jamboree days on Wednesday of last week and not too much beefing has been overheard as to the program presented. Rain dampened things a bit in the afternoon but there was still a fair crowd on deck when they called the first bingo in the evening.

Spectators watched one of the better parades, which kicked off proceedings at noon. Following this there was Little League baseball, shetland pony chuckwagon races, stake races and a horse-shoe tournament.

There was a good display of new machinery and cars, and the flower and vegetable display was one of the largest and finest seen here in many years.

Following are a list of the results in judging competitions that have been turned in:

Letter To The Editor

Editor The Pioneer.

Didsbury, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

It was with interest that I noted a picture of Mr. Schnell in your paper with the information that he was a slave of Jehovah's Witnesses. Such prominence given to the event of his talk at a local church on why he broke away from the above organization naturally deserves comment.

This is not an issue that can be settled on the basis of personal emotion. Certainly we hope that Mr. Schnell was not just trying to give vent to his feelings and that his listeners were satisfied only in hearing the Witnesses spoken against personally.

Man finds peace in many ways, getting things off his chest, so to speak, is one of them; another may be the open confession from a guilty conscience, and even there are people who just can't wait to tell someone else that, which may have better been held in confidence personally.

In these critical times the whole world is seeking for peace, whether it is a peace of mind or a sense of personal security. I will leave it to you to judge whether the world has found what it seeks.

Jehovah's Witnesses believe that the Bible is the only book on earth that is the source of the true definition of lasting peace. It holds the key for the attainment of every reasonable aspiration of man. The teaching of the Witnesses is an open book. Fulfilling the command "this gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations" Matthew 24: 14, they go from door to door, visiting minister and layman alike, of all denominations. Far from evading it they enjoy a healthful and constructive Bible discussion with anyone. The doctrine to which they hold are open to the severest testings that man can place upon them. No one in the world has to have anyone else tell them about Jehovah's Witnesses. They will call at your door gladly; their mission, in life because they love the Bible.

Often those who oppose the Witnesses deal only in personalities and not constructive Bible truths. I am writing this for your sake, let the Bible speak for itself and let God be true.

Yours in theocratic interests,

JOHN VERHAUG,
Didsbury, Alta.

Who Pays For ADVERTISING

NOT the newspaper reader, because he saves both time and money by shopping the wide selection of honest values offered through the advertising columns.
NOT the advertiser, because advertising always returns a profit when it is used correctly and consistently!
NOT the publisher, because of the hundreds of firms who profitably invest hundreds of thousands of dollars in newspaper advertising!

Every Line of Advertising in The Paper Is Paid For By The Fellow Who Doesn't Advertise!

The business which the non-advertiser loses pays the costs of advertising and ALSO returns a nice profit to the fellow who does advertise! HOPING for more business is not as effective as inviting more business!

Just For The Record . . .

We received a note in the mail from the provincial government last week telling us that, come the first of next month, the staggering sum of $20.00 will be ours for the asking, courtesy of oil and gas resources. That amount should buy our wee daughter a pair of shoes (she's been going barefoot up until now), allow us to have a few of the more persistent rattles taken out of the family jalopy (caused perhaps by travelling a few miles on our super highways), and it could be there will be enough left over out of our inheritance to take care of the slight boost in income tax that will follow. A fair shake, no less! Don't just know how we'd have managed without it.

And A Friendly Nod . . .

To the Lions Club for an entertaining day at its annual jamboree. The crowd wasn't the largest we've ever seen, due mostly to events in neighboring towns, but those who paid at the gate should have been well satisfied with their investment of time and money. It wasn't a money-maker - just a fun festival.

Just For The Record . . .

If you want to go for a boat ride, an exciting one, they tell us Ed Ford is the man to see. On a recent holiday in B.C. he was showing some visiting friends from Didsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kaufman, just how sharp he was at the helm. However he did overlook one minor detail. A mile or so from shore the outboard motor decided it was time to quit for the time being, and with good reason to, no gas. A bit of a storm came up and with only one oar and a pair of water skis things didn't look too bright. However, the wind changed to the right direction and the crew reached shore without any major mishap. One sailor, his initials are Frank, did decide he had too much lunch anyway and donated it to the fish.

And A Friendly Nod . . .

To the fellow who had the courage to admit to his friends that he was not boss in his own home. He made a small suggestion to his spouse and was set back on his heels by the remark: "When I want your opinion I'll give it to you!"

PREPARING FOR ASIATIC FLU

Medical authorities are almost unanimous in predicting that an outbreak of Asiatic Flu will strike in Canada this coming winter. December to February is the favored time, according to the best available information.

There's no point in getting into a flap about the imminence of the Flu, of course, but it would be just as foolish to dismiss it too casually either. Observation has shown that Asiatic Flu is no more dangerous than the home-grown types of Flu that appear in this country almost every winter. There are the usual symptoms of chills and fever, sore throat and cough, headache and muscular soreness. The disease lasts four or five days and there seem to be no serious after-effects.

What could cause considerable difficulty would not be the severity of the disease (except for persons already ill and for whom any disease is serious) but the incidence of it. It wouldn't be a serious matter if, in any one office or factory, just one or two people came down with the Flu at the same time. But if Asiatic Flu strikes heavily at large numbers of people at the same time it could result in serious economic dislocations. Similarly in the family unit, if one member of the family at a time were to be sick it would be easy to cope with. If all members came down with the disease at once, it could lead to a very serious situation.

Laboratories are working hard to produce vaccines for the Asiatic Flu but indications are that there won't be too much of it available when the Flu arrives, if it comes on schedule. Plans call for the vaccine to be administered first to doctors and nurses, public health officials and persons responsible for maintaining essential services. This is as it should be, of course, as it would be foolish to head into a Flu epidemic without being reasonably sure these people were going to be on the job.

The best advice we can get on what the ordinary citizen should do to prepare for a Flu epidemic is this: First, remember that while Asiatic Flu could strike hard and cause considerable inconvenience and discomfort, medical men are sure that the disease is not too dangerous; and the best way to fight almost any disease of this type is to prepare for it by keeping healthy.

Parents particularly should be more than ordinarily careful to see that children get plenty of rest and a good diet. Just as in the case of any other Flu or common cold outbreaks, the people who are generally hardest hit and take longest to get back on their feet, are the ones who have allowed themselves to become over-tired and run down.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCulloch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. L. McCulloch, Ken and Evelyn, to Perry, Oklahoma, where they attended Ken's graduation on August 10 and his wedding on August 18.

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

(Intended For Last Week)
The sympathy of the district is extended to the McMullen family in their recent bereavement.

The August meeting of the Busy Bees was held at the home of Mrs. Olive Admusen, with 10 members and two visitors present. It was decided to hold the annual bazaar on October 19, in the evening. Ladies are asked to have their articles finished by that time. Each lady is to bring six articles for the boys and six for the girls. The 10-cent draw was won by Mrs. Daphne Admusen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin and family were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Money in Cremona on Wednesday of last week. Anne-Marie McGaffin spent the first part of the week in Cremona with June Money and June spent the latter part of the week out here with Anne-Marie.

Jeannie Howton spent the week with Judy Moore in Sundre. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howton and Danny, Gary and Monty Moore, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Loughheed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper were Calgary visitors last week. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper on the birth of a son.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howton Sunday evening were Rev. G. Duffield of Vancouver, Mr. Robert Moore and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore, all of Calgary, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper of Cremona.

We saw the painters have been at work inside the school but as yet have not painted the new cupboards in the basement.

WEDDINGS

The Berthal Church of Didsbury, decorated with baskets of daisies, was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday, July 26, when Patsy Helen, eldest daughter of Mrs. Esther Brown of Didsbury and Mr. Henry Daku, son of Mrs. Bert Daku, of Kipling, Sask., were united in marriage by Rev. C. G. Neufeld, assisted by Mr. Sam Ratzlaff of Lunden.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Pete Hamm, was attired in a full length gown of white nylon lace and net over white satin, with a full-length veil, she carried a white Bible topped with roses.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miriam, who was attired in blue tulle lace and carried a pastel nosegay.

Mr. Kenneth Penner of Didsbury attended the groom, Mr. Henry Brown and Mr. Henry Hamm acted as ushers.

Miss Irene Harder and Miss Sylvia Sawatzky rendered two duets: "Whether Thou Goest" and "A Wedding Prayer," following the signing of the register, accompanied by Mrs. Aaron Derksen.

Guests departed to the basement for the reception, where grace was sung and lunch served. The wedding cake, beautifully decorated by Mrs. Henry Reimer, centred the bride's table.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Daku and Evelyn Daku of Kipling, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smutko of Decour; Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Jahnke, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Hamm, all from Herbert, Sask.

Mrs. Maria Wiens, 88-year-old grandmother of the bride, was able to be present.

The young couple received many beautiful and useful gifts. After a short honeymoon at Banff they will reside at Kipling, Sask.

Hello Again, Homemakers:

Are all your jelly jars filled by now? I hope there are a few empty ones saved for some Spiced Crab-apple Jelly, 4 lbs. approx. 2 quart) crabapples, water to cover, lemon juice, cinnamon, sugar. Wash and quarter crabapples. Add water to cover and cook covered half hour. Mash and stir fruit occasionally. Strain through a jelly bag and measure strained juice. Add one tablespoon lemon juice and 1/16 teaspoon cinnamon to each cup of juice. Bring to the boil. Add warm sugar (2/3 cup to each cup of juice). Stir until sugar is dissolved then boil rapidly until the jelly stage is reached.

The Jelly Test: The jelly stage can be tested by dipping a metal spoon full of syrup and allowing the syrup to run off the side of the spoon. When the drops of syrup flow or "sheet" together and flow off as one drop, the jelly stage has been reached.

Let's Have A Jam Session: Rhubarb is a very inexpensive and versatile fruit. For jam it can be combined with raisins, oranges, strawberries, apricots, blackberries, black currants or pineapple, as in: Rhubarb and Pineapple Jam: 8 cups rhubarb (cut in half inch pieces), 2 cups chopped pineapple (cut in half cubes), 4 cups sugar.

Combine rhubarb and pineapple. Place over low heat and cook until juice begins to form. Boil uncovered for 15 minutes, stirring to prevent sticking. Add sugar and boil again for about 25 minutes. Pour into hot sterilized jars, cool slightly and seal. Yield, 5 1/2 cups. The Jam Test: To test whether jam is right consistency, remove from heat and place a teaspoon of jam on a cold saucer. Cool quickly. If it does not set to proper thickness, cook a few minutes longer.

Gooseberry and Raspberry Jam: One quart raspberries, two quart gooseberries, six cups sugar. Wash gooseberries, remove stems and blossom ends. Wash raspberries and crush. Add gooseberries and sugar. Cook, stirring until jam is thick (25-30 minutes). Pour into

LIGHT YOUR WAY
WITH BIBLE STUDY

Paul, writing to the Thessalonians, concludes the fourth chapter of his first letter with these words: "Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

Comfort! In these days in which we are living we all need comfort. Many of us are facing vexing problems, problems of health, security, old age and a host of others. But all of these problems fade into insignificance when we contemplate the problem of sin. Sin is separation from God. God tells us: "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Because of sin, we deserve the wrath of God. In the face of such a verdict, how can we find comfort?

A minister went to see a dying woman of wealth, education and refinement. He soon discovered that she was ignorant of the essential facts of the Christian faith. To her mind Jesus was simply a teacher of morals, a good man, even a great man, but after all, a man much like the other religious leaders. She had no knowledge at all of Christianity as a religion of redemption from the power and guilt of sin. Her life had been a rather sad one, a life stained by both sin and sorrow. This poor dying soul found no comfort in the type of religion she was practicing. Dying, she sighed: "Oh, that it were possible for some one to take my sully conscience as though it were his own, that I might find a little peace."

This is the comfort we need. This comfort is offered us in God's Word. "He died for all." And Paul says: "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him."

Light your way with Bible study and you will also find this comfort.

SERVICE
NOTES
By
W. E. SNYDER
Agricultural Service Board

Now that you have likely finished using your weed sprayer for this year you will be putting it in storage for the winter. There are certain things that should be done to this equipment now to ensure that it will be in good working order when you need it next year.

1. Thoroughly drain and flush the tank and booms and allow to drain.
2. Remove the nozzles and wash and then store them in light oil.
3. Clean and reassemble filters.
4. Store tires and rubber hoses in a cool dark place.
5. Make sure the pump has been completely emptied of all water.

I have known of several instances this past summer where pumps thought to be in good working order from the previous season were completely inoperable simply because they hadn't been properly drained, had frozen up and been sprung out of alignment so badly that they wouldn't work without an overhaul.

This is important, be sure that your pump is completely drained of all water and save grief next spring. Much time and expense can be avoided if these few precautions are taken before laying this equipment away for the winter.

Pickle jars and seal.

Pickled fruits add spice to your meals. This year try making Sweet Pickled Peas, Peaches or Crabapples. Peel and quarter fresh fruit (crabapples should be left whole). Make a syrup as follows for about 9 lbs. of fruit: 3 lbs. brown sugar, 3 cups vinegar, 2 oz. whole cloves, 1 cup water, 2 oz. whole cinnamon sticks. Tie spices in bag and add vinegar, sugar and water. Bring to quick boil and boil steadily for five minutes. Drop the fruit in, a small quantity at a time and cook gently until tender, but not soft or broken. Remove to clean, hot, sterilized jars and seal.

I have two very good bulletins in my office that contain many helpful hints and recipes for jam, jelly, chutney and pickles. Send for the free bulletins "Conserves, Pickles and Relishes" and "Jams, Jellies and Pickles." Next week we will get down to the real business of pickles and relishes.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Lydia Stauffer has returned from a three-week vacation in Edmonton and surrounding districts. She took part in the program for the dedication of the chapel electric organ at Beulah Home while there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ecksteh, of New Dundee, Ont., called on Miss Eby during the weekend. They are new arrivals and have visited a number of friends in the district. They went to Banff with Mr. and Mrs. Don Weber on Monday.

President and Mrs. Taylor entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vogel at dinner Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eby will return to the campus this week after a vacation in Winfield. The latter's sister is the pastor's wife there. It is a beautiful little town in the midst of the B.C. mountains, and is a pleasant place to visit.

Some friends have donated quite a bit of meat to the school within the past few weeks, and the lockers are already being filled for school opening, the second week of October.

Miss Gladys Eby substituted for Rev. D. C. Eby at Mountain View United Missionary Church last Sunday and spoke in the morning service and for the Young People's Youth Fellowship in the evening.

Mrs. Don Taylor has been selected as pianist for the United Missionary Church for the coming year. She will be assisted by Mrs. Harley Traub. Mrs. Taylor has given excellent service in this capacity and her musical talent is greatly appreciated by the church and school.

Rev. and Mrs. John Gamble, both graduates of M.V.B.C., who have spent a number of years in India as missionaries, have returned to town this week and are making their home in the Lachman house near the campus. They will no doubt take part in the school chapel activities. Friends are now helping them furnish their home for the winter, for they will be returning to India in the Spring.

Perhaps you have enjoyed the Good News Program, under Mr. Peter Waldin's direction, for a number of years. This program can only stay on the air as it receives the financial aid of its listeners. You may want to help during these difficult summer months. If so, just mail your contribution to Good News Program, Didsbury, and an official receipt will be sent at once, good for income tax purposes. We will appreciate your help at this time. Mr. Waldin is a faculty member of the college.

WEDDINGS

McNAUGHTON — LANCASTER

St. John's Anglican Church, Edmonton, decorated with bouquets of gladioli, was the scene of a pretty wedding August 7th at 3 o'clock when Rev. W. Sewell solemnized the marriage of Miss Laura Doreen Lancaster and Mr. Gordon Roy McNaughton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lancaster of Bluekey and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McNaughton of Didsbury.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie with fitted bodice buttoned at the back and lily point sleeves. The bouffant skirt was hooped and her fingertip veil was a double circle net caught by a small scalloped cap which matched the scalloped neckline of her gown.

Mrs. D. J. Morrison of DeWinton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Shirley McMiller of Hinton was bridesmaid. They wore identical waist-length gowns of blue polished cotton, featuring fitted bodices and bouffant skirts. They carried bouquets of white baby 'mums and wore matching bandeaux. Little Gwen Lancaster, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She also wore a blue polished cotton dress with flower bandeau and carried a colonial bouquet of pastel colored carnations.

Best man was Mr. Donald McNaughton, brother of the groom, and ushering the guests were Mr. Cameron Wordie and Mr. Brian Hulsebaum, both of Edmonton.

Soloist was Mr. Gordon Robertson of Carstairs, who sang "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held at the Isle of Capri for 70 guests. The tables were decorated with sweetpeas and lentil tapers. The bride's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake.

The parents of the bride and groom received with the bridal party. Mrs. Lancaster chose for her daughter's wedding a blue crepe dress with white hat and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. McNaughton wore a dark blue dress with a beige velvet hat and corsage of red roses.

Rev. N. Calland of Alameda, B.C. proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded.

The couple left for a motor trip to Banff and Summerland, B.C. For travelling the bride wore a dress of white and brown and blue furled cotton and a brown linen duster coat with matching piping.

Her hat, shoes and purse were blue. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Upon their return the newlyweds will reside in Lacombe.

The bride and groom are both recent graduates of the University of Alberta, the former having her Bachel. or Education degree and the latter his Bachel. of Science in agriculture.

WESTCOTT SENIOR W.I.

WEDDINGSMARSH — NEUFELD

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the United Missionary Church, Didsbury, on August 9th, when Heather Marsh, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marsh, became the bride of Amos Wm. Neufeld, youngest son of Mr. C. U. Neufeld. Rev. D. C. Eby officiated, assisted by Rev. Wm. Annett.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, then paused and waited as the groom, in a white dinner jacket and black trousers, sang "O Promise Me". The bride was radiant in her floor-length gown of lace and nylon net trimmed with sequins, over taffeta, with sweetheart neckline and lace bolero with lily point sleeves. Her pearl-studded fingertip veil was held in place by a sequin studded crown. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Judy Marsh, who was attired in a blue net waist-length dress with short sleeved bolero and matching head-piece. She carried pink carnations.

Glen Neufeld, cousin of the groom acted as best man, while Dan and Abe Neufeld, brothers of the groom, were ushers.

While the register was being signed, Neil Neufeld sang "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Helen Swalm at the organ.

The brides mother chose a coral dress with a white bolero and white accessories, and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

About 75 guests signed the register at the reception. Mr. Ernie Neufeld was master of ceremonies and Rev. Annett proposed the toast to the bride.

After a honeymoon to points west the happy couple will take up residence on a farm east of Didsbury.
